Twotone Consulting Amsterdam

2 month internship abroad

MOTIVATION

I did my public relations internship abroad because I always wanted to work and live in another country. My biggest motivation was to experience a different culture and to improve my in english.

INSIDER TIP

Start VERY early with searching an accommodation and watch out for scams! Also Amsterdam is very expensive so searching more outside can help.

BIGGEST DIFFERENCE

The biggest difference with dutch people is that they are always biking without a helmet and they are biking everywhere Also they are very direct people, which means they will always tell you what they think.

CHALLENGES & HURDLES

The biggest challenge was before the internship started. Finding an accommodation is the hardest thing ever, because it is very expensive and scams are everywhere!

FUN FACT

The Haring Bread is very disgusting but if you are into very fishy taste with a nearly raw texture then this is something for you!
